

General terms and conditions - Retail Clients

1. About the General terms and conditions

Dealing with the Bank's - General terms and conditions apply to all agreements between you and the Bank. Here you can read about your and the Bank's rights and obligations.

Individual business areas may require more detailed terms and conditions to serve as a supplement to the General Terms and Conditions. This applies to for instance the terms and conditions of the Netbank.

Also, the Bank's General terms and conditions contain information in accordance with the Danish Act of Payment (betalingsloven) and are considered a framework contract which states the rules for the use of payment accounts and payment services.

The Bank's General terms and conditions also include "Information on the processing of personal data at Ringkøbing Landbobank", which can be seen at www.landbobanken.dk.

The Bank may change its General terms and conditions without notice if the change is to your advantage. In other cases, you will be given three months' notice.

The General terms and conditions may be downloaded from www.landbobanken.dk or obtained from your local branch.

2. Electronic communication

As a client of the Bank will receive a personal Netboks. You can access your Netboks via Netbank or via a specific login.

In your Netboks you will generally receive messages from the Bank, including bank statements, agreements, terms and conditions and any changes hereto. Therefore, you must check whether there are any new messages in your Netboks. You may access messages in your Netboks for at least five years after receipt.

You receive messages in your Netboks. However, subject to a fee, you may also receive paper messages or e-Boks messages. You may choose to receive paper messages/e-Boks messages via your Netboks or by contacting your account manager.

If you have an e-Boks, the Bank may always choose to send messages for information purposes and agreements for your electronic signature to your e-Boks.

You may log on to your e-Boks via your Netbank or via e-Boks.dk

If the public authorities change to an electronic mailbox other than e-Boks, the Bank may choose to use this electronic mailbox.

The Bank is not under an obligation to execute orders or instructions placed by e-mails and thereby accepts no liability for any losses as a result of that these may not have been executed.

3. Authorisation

You may authorise others in writing to operate your accounts with the Bank, usually via the Bank's power-of-attorney form. The authorisation will remain in force until the Bank receives your written notification of its revocation or amendment.

If you conclude an agreement with others about a joint account, each of you may solely operate the account unless otherwise agreed.

The authorisation will cease to exist on your death, and access to accounts, safe-custody accounts and safe deposit boxes will be blocked. Also access to joint accounts, joint safe-custody accounts and joint safe deposit boxes will be blocked.

4. Interest rates and prices

The interest and commission rates applicable to deposits and loans are displayed at the Bank's branches, and at www.landbobanken.dk. Interest and commission rates, prices etc. are variable unless otherwise expressly agreed by you and the Bank. Variable rates imply that the Bank may change the rates.

There are prices for services rendered by the Bank and for answering enquiries from public authorities. Standard prices are set out in a price list available at the Bank's branches or at www.landbobanken.dk. Other prices are available on request.

The Bank's prices are calculated as a fixed amount, a percentage, or an hourly rate proportionate to the extent of the services or a combination of the above.

The Bank may change variable interest rates without notice if the change is to your advantage and reduce the price of services.

Change of variable interest rates and prices without notice

The Bank may under current contracts without notice reduce its interest rates on deposits and raise its interest rates on new loans and credits and raise its prices of services and introduce new prices due to external circumstances beyond the control of the Bank and which are of importance to the Bank, for instance (non-exhaustive list):

- domestic or foreign changes of monetary or credit policy that affect the general interest-rate level;
- other developments in the general interest-rate level, for instance in the money and bond markets; or
- changes of taxes and duties.

The Bank is entitled without notice to introduce and raise the prices of one-off services and generally of new contracts.

Change of variable interest rates and prices at 1 month's notice

The Bank may under current contracts at 1 month's notice reduce interest rates on deposits and increase interest rates on loans and credits and raise its prices of services, if

- the circumstances change which individually provided the basis of the determination of the terms and conditions of your interest rates and prices; or
- The Bank changes its general interest-rate and pricing policy for business reasons, for instance to improve earnings, or to obtain a more appropriate use of the Bank's resources or capacity;
- market-related issues, when for instance competition- or earnings-related issues justify changes as regards one or more account types, including any amalgamation with another bank/financial institution.

Change of variable interest rates and prices at 3 months' notice

The Bank may under current contracts at 3 months' notice reduce interest rates on deposits and increase interest rates on loans and credits and raise its prices of services, if

- for established housing loans the Bank may raise its interest rates at 3 months' notice (instead of one month) and in connection with mortgage-like loans under continuing customer relationships subject to a notice of six months (instead of three months).
- introduction of prices of services for which the Bank has not previously charged payment can take place at 3 months' notice.
- Change or introduction of prices related to accounts under the Danish Payment Services Act, payment accounts will take place at at least 2 months' notice.

For the reasons mentioned under 8, in connection with mortgage-like loans under continuing customer relationships and subject to a notice of six months (instead of three months) The Bank may increase fees charged to you and introduce fees for services which have not previously been subject to a fee.

Current contracts comprise contracts entered into, for instance a contract on an account, a card or a contract on Internet banking.

The Bank changes commission rates and other rates referred to as "premium" or "margin", etc. in specific agreements according to the same guidelines as those applying to changes to interest rates and prices.

If you have a time deposit, you are entitled, for a period of 14 days after interest rate changes have taken effect, to withdraw your deposit without any interest deduction, if the notice of the interest rate change is shorter than the term of notice of the account.

The Bank will give notice of any changes in rates and prices. See how at www.landbobanken.dk under Banken, Priser, Besked om ændring.

5. Value dates, calculation of interest and commission

As a rule, interest and commission are calculated on a daily basis. The Bank will inform you on request about what applies to a specific account.

The value date is the date from which a payment into or out of an account or any other account movement will affect the calculation of interest on an account.

The registration date is the date on which The Bank registers an account movement.

The entry date is the banking day on which a registered account movement is entered. An account movement is entered on the banking day when the Bank receives the amount and no later than the next banking day after its registration.

Banking days/transaction days are every day with the exception of Saturdays, Sundays and Danish public holidays, 5 June (Constitution Day), Friday following Ascension Day, 24 and 31 December.

When the Bank has registered an account movement, it will be listed in the account entries in registration date order.

The value date is in case of

- cash payment in Danish kroner (DKK) or euro (EUR) into a payment account in DKK or EUR: the entry date;
- other cash payments and payments by payment cards: as a rule, the first banking day after the entry date;
- transfers from other clients of Ringkjøbing Landbobank to payment accounts: the entry date;
- transfers from other clients of Ringkjøbing Landbobank to other accounts than payment accounts: the first banking day after the entry date;
- transfers received from other Danish banks to payment accounts: the entry date;
- transfers received from other Danish banks to other accounts than payment accounts: the first banking day after the entry date;
- payroll and supplier payments: the day on which the amount is at your disposal (usually the same day as the entry date);
- cash payment out of an account with Ringkjøbing Landbobank, including by card: the transaction day;
- withdrawal of cash at ATMs on non-banking days: the first banking day after the withdrawal;
- Use of payment cards at payment terminals: the entry date;
- transfers between own accounts with Ringkjøbing Landbobank in the same currency: the entry date;
- transfers between own accounts with Ringkjøbing Landbobank in EUR/DKK: the entry date;
- transfers between own accounts with Ringkjøbing Landbobank in various currencies: the entry date. In some instances, international bank holidays must be taken into account.

With respect to foreign exchange transactions and foreign exchange transfers reference is made to the section on foreign exchange transactions.

6. Interest and commission

Interest due to you will be added annually.

Interest and commission payable by you will be charged monthly, quarterly or semi-annually.

The Bank may determine not to add/charge interest below a certain amount.

7. Overdraft interest and reminder fees, etc.

If an account is defaulted on due to overdraft, arrears or use contrary to agreement, the Bank is entitled to charge overdraft interest. If the account is closed due to default, the Bank is entitled to charge default interest.

The Bank may charge

- fees for sending reminders
- debt collection fees
- fees to cover debt collection and legal assistance expenses.

The size of the reminder fee will appear from the Bank's reminder and from our price list. Details of other fees, overdraft interest rate and default rate are available at the Bank. As regards payment accounts the overdraft interest rate will appear from your bank statement.

On defaulted claims, the Bank may choose to stop the crediting of interest for administrative and accounting purposes. This does not mean that we will waive our rights to receive interest on our claim and to demand payment of subsequently incurred costs. This will apply irrespective of what appears from the lists of account entries, self-service systems etc.

8. Provisos as regards deposits

Non-cash deposits into your accounts will be recorded by the Bank provided that the Bank finally receives the amount.

This reservation applies even when it is not stated on receipts or other notifications regarding the deposit.

The Bank can according to agreement with other financial institutions be obliged to carry back amounts, for instance amounts that have been transferred due to fraud.

Deposits may have been registered and may be available before the entry date. The Bank will report to the public authorities on the basis of the entry date. You are responsible for deposits being made well in time for the amount to be reported as intended.

The Bank may reverse amounts credited to your account by an obvious mistake on the part of the the Bank, for instance if the same amount is credited twice.

9. Bank statement examination

You are obliged to examine the entries in your account regularly. If there are any entries that you cannot acknowledge, you must contact the Bank as soon as possible.

However, any complaints regarding payment transactions comprised by the Danish Payment Services Act must be made within 13 months of the transaction being executed.

10. Payments from your accounts

Payment accounts are all accounts which are opened to execute payment transactions.

The Bank determines which accounts can be used as payment accounts, and therefore you will not be able to make payment transactions from all your accounts with the Bank.

The execution time is the time which will pass before a payment transaction has been registered in the payee's account. The maximum execution time for payments is one banking day, however a maximum of two banking days as regards paper-based payments, for instance giro forms.

However special terms and conditions apply to international payments and payments in foreign currency. The terms and conditions can be viewed in 'Terms and Conditions - International Payments'.

If a payment order is received near the end of a banking day, the payment order will be considered to have been received on the following banking day. The closing time of a banking day depends on the type of payment order. The cut-off times for the various types of payment transactions are available from the Bank on request.

Payments may have been registered before the entry date and may have affected your available balance. The Bank will report to the public authorities on the basis of the entry date. You are responsible for making payments well in time for the amount to be reported as intended.

You may revoke payment orders up to and including the banking day before the banking day on which you intended the order to be executed. You may revoke payment orders within the time-limits applicable to individual types of payment transactions.

The Bank may reject a payment order in the absence of sufficient funds in the account from which the payment is to be drawn.

11. Set-off

The Bank is entitled, without prior notice to you, to set off any amount receivable, due or not due, against your balance with the Bank or against any amount payable by the Bank to you at the present or any future time, whether the amount receivable is due or not due.

The Bank will not set off amounts against any part of your wages, salary or government benefits, etc., deemed necessary to cover your normal living expenses.

The Bank will not set off amounts against account balances which are exempt from debt enforcement by law or separate agreement.

12. Termination of client relationships

You may terminate your customer relationship without notice, unless otherwise agreed.

The Bank may terminate the client relationship at a reasonable and usual notice, observing the rules on common practice for financial institutions. If the Bank terminates the client relationship, you are entitled to receive a reason.

If you cannot accept changes to the rules on payment services, you must notify the Bank before the change takes effect. You will simultaneously cancel the payment services to which the change relates.

Upon termination of a customer relationship, the Bank is entitled to terminate any surety and guarantee obligations and to free itself from other obligations undertaken on your behalf. In addition, you are obliged to release the Bank from all obligations undertaken on your behalf or, when necessary, to provide security for such obligations.

You have access to your Netboks for at least 13 months after termination of your customer relationship.

13. Foreign exchange transactions

For cross-border payments and foreign-exchange payments, the Bank's Terms and conditions - International Payments, which are available at www.landbobanken.dk or at the Bank's branches, will apply.

As regards payment transactions falling within the Danish Payment Services Act and entailing conversion between two currencies the Bank will apply the following principles for the determination of the exchange rate:

Quoted rate. The rate is fixed on the basis of the Ringkøbing Landbobank's exchange rate plus a premium or less a discount of up to 0,75 % per cross rate. The premium or discount rate depends on the specific cross rate.

The principle applied to the payment transaction depends on the transaction type as well as the currency. We will inform you of the principle, rate and any premium or discount used on request.

The rate is published at Netbanken or is available upon request from the Bank.

14. Transactions abroad

Where the Bank transacts business outside Denmark on your behalf, it will choose the business partner. The Bank is not liable for any error committed by the chosen business partner nor for the fulfilment of its obligations.

You and the Bank are subject to the rules of law, customs and business conditions governing the agreement with the business partner.

When you transfer money to countries outside Denmark, you must be aware that information may be passed on to the US authorities. SWIFT is an international data network for the transfer of funds between countries. According to US legislation, SWIFT has been ordered to disclose information if it suspects financing of crime or terrorism when payments are executed.

15. In case of disagreement with the Bank

If you are dissatisfied with the Bank, please contact your branch.

If, after having discussed the problem with your branch, you do still not agree with the Bank, you may file a complaint with the Bank's complaints officer. You may obtain information about the complaints officer of the Bank's upon request from the Bank or at www.landbobanken.dk.

Subsequently, you may submit your complaint to the Danish Complaint Board of Banking Services, Store Kongensgade 62, 2. sal, DK-1264 Copenhagen K, fanke.dk.

You can also use the EU Commission's online complaints portal at ec.europa.eu/odr. This is in particular relevant for consumers domiciled in another EU country. If you complain through the complaints portal, you must give information about the Bank's e-mail address which is klageansvarlig@landbobanken.dk.

Complaints concerning the Bank's compliance with financial legislation may be filed with the Danish FSA.

16. The Bank's liability to pay damages

The Bank will be liable to pay damages if, due to errors or negligence, the Bank's performance of its agreed obligations is delayed or defective.

Even in areas where strict liability applies, the Bank will not be liable for any loss incurred as a result of

- breakdown of/non-access to IT systems or the corruption of data in these systems ascribable to any of the events listed below, regardless of whether the Bank or an external supplier is responsible for operating the systems;

- power failure or breakdown of the Bank's telecommunications, legislative or administrative intervention, natural disasters, war, rebellion, civil unrest, sabotage, terrorism or vandalism (including computer viruses and hacking);

- strikes, lockouts, boycotts or blockades, regardless of whether the conflict is aimed at or initiated by the Bank itself or its organisation, and regardless of the cause of the conflict. This also applies where the conflict affects only parts of the Bank;

- other circumstances beyond the control of the Bank.

The Bank will not be exempt from liability where

- at the time of signing the agreement, the Bank ought to have foreseen the event that caused the loss or ought to have prevented or remedied the cause of loss;

- under Danish law, the Bank is liable for the cause of loss under any circumstances.

17. Business partners

According to the Danish Executive Order on Good Business Practice for Financial Undertakings, we must disclose that we receive commission or other remuneration for arranging for the sale of and selling the products of our business partners.

A list of our business partners is available at www.landbobanken.dk and the Bank's branches.

18. Garantiformuen

As a client of the Bank you are to a certain extent protected against losses through Garantiformuen (Danish guarantee scheme for depositors and investors). You can read about the scope of the coverage at www.landbobanken.dk or at gii.dk.

19. Supervisory authority

The Bank is subject to the supervision of the Danish FSA, Århusgade 110, DK-2100 Copenhagen Ø, finansilsynet.dk and is registered under FSA number 7670.

20. Applicable law and jurisdiction

Any disputes will be settled in accordance with Danish law and under the jurisdiction of the Danish courts.

Valid from 22 May 2018

Translation

The above is a translation of the Danish "Almindelige forretningsbetingelser - privatkunder". In case of doubt the Danish original will apply.